1. Principal Update: LAND Trust Program school plan: The money, around $60,000, from the LAND trust is being used for Para Professionals to support increased reading competency and scores in 1st and 2nd grades. There is continued difficulty in finding applicants. Job posting information has been advertised; pay has been increased to $15/ hour make the positions more attractive.

The TSSA fund pays for what LAND trust dollars do not cover; $15,000 of which includes paying teachers to tutor students before or after school hours.

The Student Success Plan is being finalized and will be sent to the school board for approval.

The Principal Assurance form was reviewed and will be submitted. Vickie Kennedy Overfelt will present overview of mindfulness program to the SCC in the future student and parent materials will be sent out by January. Beacon will use Healthy Lifestyles week to promote the program to families.

To address safety concerns internally the DIR-S system is now in place and can be used to send an alert to all on the system including faculty and staff in the school, district officials and the police.

Safe UT app is also available for all to report a concern. The report will be directed to the Principal who will then address the person sending the information.

Wendy Child, school counselor, has finished anti bullying and harassment education for the students and will now showcase the Safe UT app in her time with students.

Approximately 25 to 28% of Beacons student population come from a home where English is not the main language spoken. Around two to three thousand dollars are spent annually on materials to support their experience in the acquisition of English in the classroom.

Looking at changing the dates of the spring SEPs as they were also scheduled in a similar fashion. Currently looking at the week of Feb 2- Feb 7 to hold SEPs. There will be a survey sent out by Rae to the teachers. Rae will bring the information to the November meeting where we may be VOTING on the matter.

For November:
